

Fit for Royalty

If you are looking for a mansion with a flavour of royalty then stop right here as we have found it!

This exceptionally suitably appointed 400 m² (approx.) residence on a 1.22 Ha site will give you and your guests the feeling of grandeur however it is equally coupled with the gated security and pleasures of a homely sanctuary.

The property has five large bedrooms and you would be forgiven in mistaking the master bedroom on the top floor for a second lounge. The walk in wardrobe is one of those spaces where you would stand at the entrance with mouth agape as the size of this wardrobe could arguably house a small clothing outlet. The ground floor is spacious, the gourmet kitchen features a scullery, large gas hob and an island to entertain. On the entertainment front, the large fireplace and outdoor flow to the custom made barbeque area is perfect to impress your guests as they relax in the deck chairs beside the pool.

The water views are outstanding. Not only from the Master bedroom but from several vantage points in and around the property. The real point of difference is the access to the water front down a set of stairs which will take you to your jetty to park your own boat or be picked up by somebody else's. A large storage area is situated beside the pool which may be able to be used to bring in extra income.

Don't hesitate on this one, as a palace-like residence on display here is hard to find and it's top-of-the-hill location will ensure that it will always hold its value.
